PRODUCT FEATURES

SOKANAA® is inspired by traditional juices from the Caribbean, Brazil and Southeast Asia. It contains no sweeteners.

This juice is packed with unrefined slow sugars and B-complex vitamins (B1-B3PP-B5-B6-B9), rich in vitamin B12, Protein and Sodium.

Thanks to its high vitamin B12 content, it is an ideal addition to the diet of vegetarians and vegans. Vitamin B12 is easily found in animals, but is extremely rare in plants. Vegetarians are deficient in vitamin B12 and, according to the WHO, are advised to consume B12-rich food supplements or capsules.

In the event of hypoglycemia, diabetics will benefit from a few sips of SOKANAA® juice, which is more beneficial than a lump of refined white beet sugar.

100% natural origin, pasteurized and with no added sugar. Contains naturally occurring sugars. Thanks to its directly assimilable sucrose content, it is recommended for sportsmen and women during exercise, for an occasional boost. Taking into account its main constituent, sugar, it's a pleasure drink for the rest of the population.

As for the Muslim community, who don't drink alcohol, they'll appreciate the taste of SOKANAA® and all its benefits.

100% pure, this juice is untreated and its properties unaltered. All production waste is 100% biodegradable.

SOKANAA® sugar cane is always hand-cut from small plantations to ensure the fairest possible beverage.

SOKANAA® is "The" new ideal drink for everyone, protecting both the environment and public health.
